Sachel Bise is a full-time student on the Shakespeare Studies MA program at King's College London. She is interested in applying newly learned skills to help teach students more about Shakespeare so that they learn to love the texts. In addition, she is interested in the influence of Queen Elizabeth I on Shakespeare's female characters and their interpretation and reception over time. Bise aspires to be a teacher, professor, and writer in the future. She hopes for the opportunity to work with students on Shakespeare and use it to help them improve their literacy, communication, and confidence.
